Delivering your talk
Delivering your talk

Use your voice, eyes, and body to convey your message and engage your audience.
Using your voice
Using your voice

- Speed
- Volume
- Tone
Using your voice
Using your voice

Clarity
Using your voice

Clarity

Emphasis
Using your voice

Clarity

Emphasis

Engagement
Using your eyes

Make eye contact with people in audience
Using your body

Look confident
Using your body

Look confident
- Good posture
- Deliberate movements
- Relaxed facial expressions
Using your body

Look confident

Avoid distractions
Using your body

Look confident

Avoid distractions
  Rocking back and forth
  Pacing
  Fiddling with something in your hands
Using your body

Look confident

Avoid distractions

Connect with your audience
Using your body

Look confident

Avoid distractions

Connect with your audience
  Don’t hide behind the podium
  Show interest in audience
How do I do all this?
Preparing your talk

Know your slides

Don’t memorize (or read)

Practice until fluent
Delivering your talk
References

Dr. Jean-luc Doumont, founding partner, Principiae

Toastmasters