

Title IX Support at SEAS

Harvard's Title IX Coordinators are committed to ensuring equal access to University programs and activities and promoting diversity and inclusion based on sex, including sexual orientation and gender identity. For more information, see the Harvard University Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment Policy.

SEAS Staff Title IX Coordinator

Heidi Shea
Human Resources Consultant
20 University Road, office 651 (suite 649)
(617) 496-8445
hshea@seas.harvard.edu

Heidi supports SEAS staff by:

- Receiving information about allegations of unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature and gender-based harassment;
- Providing interim measures (supports such as alterations to work schedules, changes in seating arrangements, changes in work locations, leaves of absence);
- Providing information on the University Policy and Procedures and on the wide range of options and resources available to the community; and
- Answering questions on these issues.

For a comprehensive guide to University and community resources, visit the Harvard Title IX Resource Guide.